

MR. THURSTON MUST GO.

Secretary Gresham Demands That he be Recalled.

Hon. Post.

Washington, March 19.—Secretary Gresham has demanded that the Hawaiian government recall its minister, Mr. Louis Thurston.

The demand was sent to Minister Willis at Honolulu by the steamer sailing for that point on February 21. This demand is so positive and formal that it will necessarily be complied with at once or the minister will be given his passport.

Mr. Thurston has long been persona non grata here and has ever since he came been active in opposition to the administration as well as bold in his criticisms of its acts. All through the several long Hawaiian debates in the Fifty-third congress he was present at the capitol and frequently in the house and senate lobbies and openly gave members material for attacks upon the administration. This was well known at the state department and the White House and no doubt did much to bring about the ill feeling which culminated in a quarrel some few days before the recall was demanded.

It seems that positive evidence came to the secretary that the minister had given to the press here information which should have gone first to the department. Judge Gresham sent for Mr. Thurston, accused him and asked for an apology. The minister admitted the charge and apologized verbally, but Secretary Gresham insisted that a formal apology be made in writing. This the minister refused in such terms that a quarrel ensued. Then the secretary sent to Honolulu this demand for the recall of Thurston. This is a culmination which has been long expected and its result will be very pleasing to administrative circles here.

Mrs. Calvin Brice yaid Ysaye $1,000 to appear at one of her musicales the other day, and gave Melba and Edouard de Reszke an equal amount to appear at another. The widowed Senator Hearst and Mrs. R. H. Townsend also paid these operative stars $750 and $1,000 for their attendance at a musicale.

Elegant, but by no means elaborate, evening gown is a symphony in blue, the skirt satin, the bodice chiffon, the sleeves mirlot velvet, a pointed piece of the same heading the exquisite old Stuart lace of a heavy make cut in deep vandykes. Ribbon is employed at the waist and as rosettes on the shoulders.

A granddaughter of the celebrated lawyer, Rufus Choate, Mrs. Helen Choate Prince, of Boston, has written a novel with the title, "The Story of Christine Rocheford," the scene of which is laid in France.

Though the craving for sweets is a natural one, and perhaps not harmful if gratified in moderation at the proper time, parents should see to it that sweetmeats are not nibbled between meals, but eaten as a part of the dinner or luncheon.

The Empress of Austria has not had an apparition taken for 30 years. She wants to be remembered as the brilliant beauty who was almost six feet tall, whose hair came below her knees and whose waist measured 17 inches.
